

REGIONAL EMPOWERMENT, ECONOMIC GROWTH:
Accessing Technology in the Delta Region

January 25-26, 2001

Vicksburg Convention Center ■ Vicksburg, MS

Speaker Bios

Sylvia Goldman Is a project coordinator at the Institute for Technology Development in Jackson, Mississippi. During her time with ITD she has been responsible for conceptualizing, developing and implementing projects related to community/economic development, entrepreneurial business research and development, workforce development and educational outreach. She currently serves on the Mississippi State Board for Community and Junior Colleges workforce taskforce and as an officer of the Mississippi Biomass Council. Before joining ITD, Mrs. Goldman served as the executive director of the Mississippi Rural Health Association. She has extensive experience in coalition building, strategic planning, program development and management, and social science research design and implementation. She is currently completing her dissertation to earn a PhD in public and organizational communication at the University of Southern Mississippi and is also attending the Community Development Institute to become a certified community developer.